DETAILED ACTION

1. Acknowledgement made of amendment filed 6/30/2010.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Morgan (US 6,567,134 B1).

Regarding claim 9, Morgan teaches means of reception (502, figure 5) of a video signal; means of periodic generation of successive coloured beams (M-R, Y-G, C-B, figure 7) taking successively at each period a plurality of determined primary colours (the optical mixture of M-R, Y-G and C-B respectively); and

A means of modulation of each of said coloured beams (600, figure 6) for generating during a determined duration an image to be displayed in each of said determined primary colours (column 6 lines 1-4) as a function of the received video signal,

Means for modifying the determined primary colours by varying the duration of at least one of the distinct colours taken by each of the coloured beams (column 8 – column 9, tables 1 and 2; and specifically column 9 lines 11-13); and

Means of determination of the hue (column 5 lines 54-58) of at least one of said primary colours as a function of the received video signal (column 10 lines 6-25 and 54-61);

Wherein each of said determined primary colours is obtained as a result of at least two distinct colours (M-R; Y-G; C-B) taken successively by the colour beam during the determined duration of modulation of the coloured beam for generating an image in the primary color (column 5 lines 10-21).

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 6/30/2010 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Regarding Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 9, that Morgan does not teach, "any variation of the respective durations of each segment of the color wheel during the display of images as taught and claimed by the Applicants (page 11 paragraph 3 – page 12 paragraph 1: Applicant's arguments), examiner respectfully disagrees. The variation in duration is taught by tables 1 and 2, see above rejection of claim 9, wherein column 9 states that the amount of secondary color boost is determined by white content and the intensity of the pixel which and the tables show different values for each color which means it is variable.

Regarding Applicant's arguments (page 12 paragraph 2) that, "Morgan does not disclose means of determination of the hue of at least one of said primary colours as a function of the received video signal," Examiner respectfully disagrees. See Morgan column 5 lines 54-58.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 12 and 14 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Regarding claim 12, Prior art does not teach a first coloured wheel and a second coloured wheel successively traversed by a luminous beam, each coloured wheel carrying a plurality of coloured filtering sectors and being driven with a substantially identical angular speed and wherein each of said determined primary colours is obtained as a result of at least two distinct colours taken successively by the colour beam during the determined duration.

Regarding claim 14, Prior art does not teach the means of periodic generation of successive coloured beams comprises a first and a second identical coloured wheel successively traversed by a luminous beam, each coloured wheel carrying at least three coloured filtering sectors of respective colours yellow, magenta and cyan and being driven with in rotation.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
